

EVENTUALLY

Been searchin' around
Too many answers not found
Don't even know what to say
Words just get in the way

All the thoughts in my head
And the things that we said
Won't ever make us feel free
Or alive as we wanna be

Eventually it's easy to see
Even for me - - eventually

In the longing and haze
I was held in your gaze
As the sunshine pored in
Colors whirled in the wind

Carried smiles in the sorrow
As you held our tomorrow
In the palm of your hand
Like grains of soft sand

Eventually it's easy to see
Even for me - - eventually

Decide I'll leave it to fate
Then my heart hesitates
Time to face all the demons
Confront all the reasons

Why the laughter and strife
Coexist in our life
Find the courage to be
All I'm expectin' of me

Eventually it's easy to see
Even for me - - eventually
Even for me
