

RELEASE THE PEACE

Might take some persuadin'
Your senses are fadin'
It don't really matter
What thrills you been after

'Cause there in the distance
As time is my witness
What's real ain't for buyin'
Don't listen, they're lyin'

Just release
Your inner peace
Yeah release
That inner peace

I know what you been through
I know 'cause I been too
Not as hard as it seems
Tradin' nightmares for dreams

What's real gets to feel clear
No illusions to fear near
Step on out of the game
Life won't be the same

Once you release
Your inner peace
Just release
Your inner peace

Don't matter what team won
Don't care what they put on
Feel the sunshine within
Feel your spirit begin

To release
Its inner peace
Just release
That inner peace
