

ROLLIN' ON AGAIN

Pack the silver suitcase you keep under the bed
Because we're rollin' on again
Find a finer place than those where we both been
Now the road's our only friend
I may be broke 'n' busted down
But darlin' that'll turn aroun' in time

I can't say where or even when
That these ramblin' blues'll end
The only truth t' tell ya darlin's
That it just depends

I'll do whatever, all it takes, so dry your tears
For my mistakes anew
I'll take what work that I can find 'n'
Leave these ramblin' blues behind again
That baby child inside of you
Will smile upon what's beautiful 'n' free

I can't say where or even when
That these ramblin' blues'll end
The only truth t' tell ya darlin's
That it just depends - so

Pack the silver suitcase you keep under the bed
Because we're rollin' on again
Rollin' on again
Rollin' on again
