

Planetary Nights Reviews

Leading off with the jaw-dropping, adrenaline-charged rocker, "Road Trip," Planetary Nights sets the bar pretty high on their debut CD, "Elliptical Motion." What follows is a further 14-track exploration of rock styles fused by spot-on instincts and flashes of potent song craft. Built on a classic rock attitude of tuneful and engaging hooks, "Elliptical Motion" is jam packed with songs of raw intensity such as "Luck Runnin' Out," or "Release The Peace" and soulful balladry of "If Ever" or "Hide Away," as well as radio-ready fare defying the constraints of categorization "Don't Hold Back," and "Ebony Eyes." Planetary Nights' "Elliptical Motion" is a cohesive and sparkling CD that succeeds because it blazes its own path of genuine fire and passion; a trail that starts and ends at the heart of rock 'n' roll.

-Billboard Discoveries

"It very much hearkens to the music of peeps like Tom Petty and Bruce Springsteen." -
Single of the Day

-Rice B. and the RadiIndy.com Reviewer Team

"Gritty, earthy and emotionally real, Planetary Nights's music crosses time and genre, spanning the realms of rock, blues, punk, and soul to create its own highly personalized sound."

-Baxojayz Centricity

"Planetary nights" is magical kinda spacey sounding,just love it...This is a great bluesy rock record,with a modern feel to it."

-BRCFP (live365)

